

Curriculum Overview for Personal Development Year 10

Half Term 3: It's My Right &amp; Risks and Relationships Substantive Knowledge: Reasons why the right to privacy may be limited How technology use may affect privacy How facial recognition could be used by police forces Factors which affect migration How asylum seekers differ from refugees Potential effects of government policies Link between honour and abuse Potential effects of forms of honour-based abuse Examples of laws related to honour-based abuse Different forms of commitment English laws relating to marriage Various ways in which marriage may come about Potential considerations of having sex for the first time Reasons why people want to have sex How social views of sex have changed over time		Key words explicitly taught and reinforced But, because, so Modelling to unpick source information Skim reading Reading comprehension Discussion of big picture questions
Disciplinary Knowledge: Literacy skills Analytical skills Source analysis Reading comprehension Developing and sustaining argument Empathy Evaluating significance		Panopticon Privacy Immigration Asylum Honour Honour-Based Abuse FGM Marriage Civil Partnership Cohabitation Motive Stigmatise
		Ipsative assessment

Half Term 4: Risks and Relationships

Substantive Knowledge:

Examples of sexual harassment
English laws around forms of harassment
Way to intervene when witnessing harassment
What 'sex' means
Risks to sexual activity
Methods of minimising risk during sexual activity
Benefits of using external and internal condoms
How other forms of contraception work
Factors that affect a person's fertility
How fertility treatments are carried out
How can a pregnancy be confirmed
Options available to someone who is pregnant
Factors that influence a decision regarding pregnancy
How fertilisation works
Key stages of development during pregnancy
How external factors may affect foetal development
Legal responsibilities of being a parent
How parental responsibilities change over time
Different approaches to parenting

Disciplinary Knowledge:

Literacy skills
Analytical skills
Source analysis
Reading comprehension
Developing and sustaining argument
Empathy
Evaluating significance

Key words explicitly taught and reinforced
But, because, so
Modelling to unpick source information
Skim reading
Reading comprehension
Discussion of big picture questions

Harassment
Sexual Harassment
Risk
Oral
Masturbation
Contraception
Fertility
Menopause
Abortion
Adoption
Parenthood
Fertilisation

Ipsative assessment