Message for Farming Families

The Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (RABI) is offering Return to School grants to support children from farming families with the cost of school essentials. This may include items such as uniform, footwear, bags, and other back-to-school supplies.

Families experiencing financial difficulty who are connected to farming (including farm workers, tenants, or owners) may be eligible for this support.

Further information and details on how to apply can be found here: <https://rabi.org.uk/returntoschool>
